

Index for Volume 33 (1980) of The Armenian Review

COMPILED BY LEVON A. SARYAN. This Index is part of our ongoing attempt to provide readers and users of The Armenian Review with a complete listing of published material in its pages. Indexed material includes articles, book reviews, documents, and other items, arranged under each category alphabetically by author's last name. Each citation is typically followed by a selection of subject classifications in parentheses. A more detailed description of the methods employed may be found in volume 28, issue number 4-112 (1975-1976), pages 440-447.

The present Index covers issue numbers 1-129 to 4-132 of volume 33 (1980 issues). For maximum ease and consistency, citations are made in the following format: Author. "Title." Volume number (Issue number): pages inclusive, year. (subjects). In all cases in this Index, the volume number is 33, the year 1980. Issue numbers are given in their hyphenated form, for example 2-130, indicating first the number for the particular volume or year, and second, the sequential number of all issues published since the inception of the Review in 1948.
